Volunteers

Volunteers are a vital part of Age Concern. Without their support the range of services currently being offered would not be available to those who are most vulnerable within our own community.

Our volunteers do a range of activities:

- * Office receptionist / administration
- * Management committee members
- * Social support activities within groups or individually
- * Community visitors to care facilities
- * Companion animal visitors
- * food preparation
- * Musical entertainment

Who can be a Volunteer?

Anyone who has a spare hour or more each week and who is interested in contributing to individual quality of life of the broader community members.

Are Volunteers trained?

Each year a range of training courses are offered to equip volunteers with the skills, knowledge and understanding of the organisation and the people we work with.

Are any requirements?

Yes. There are requirements such as a police check and an agreement to work under Age Concern's policies and procedures. If you do home visiting you may need your own car and comprehensive car insurance.

How do I start?

Call or drop into the Volunteer Resource Bureau and speak to them about volunteering at Age Concern. They assist us to place the right person to the right role through their recruitment program.
